RIX DECIDES NOT TO RUN.

Street Commissioner Tells The Daily News That He Will Not Be a Candidate for the Office of Mayor.

Street Commissioner James Rix, when seen this morning by a Daily News representative said that he would not be a candidate for Mayor. He said that a great many of his friends called on him relative to running for the office, and that he had about concluded to do so, but after considering the matter more seriously, he came to the conclusion that it would not be wise for him to run.

Mr. Rix mentioned the names of G. B. Seaman and E. W. Greene, for the office, and it is more than probable that one or the other will announce his candidacy during the next few days

S. B. Elliott, who has been with the United States Coast Survey boat Gertrude, in this vicinity, left yesterday afternoon for Washington, D. C. Mr. Elliott received an urgent message which necessitated his immediate departure.

In this issue appears an advertisement of the popular Daytona House, which is under the management of W. S. Kenny, who last season successfully operated The Kennice at Daytona Beach. Mr. Kenny has been in the hotel business for a number of years, and together with his pleasant wife, the guests of the House are entertained in good style. The House is making a specialty of giving only the best service.

Port Orange.

Lewis Patillo came over from Osteen Wednesday of last week, to visit his brother and cousins returning home Saturday.

The Literary Society met Friday of last week, in Ridgewood Hall, and elected the following officers. Miss DuBois, president; Mrs. S. J. Fox, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Milburn, secretary, and Mrs. C. B. Meeker, treasurer.

Thursday afternoon was the first Church Tea of the season. Miss DuBois was hostess and though it was a wet afternoon, there was quite a goodly attendance. After this they will be held on Friday afternoon of every week during the season, in Ridgewood Hall, from 3 to 5 o'clock. When you are passing, come in and get a cup of tea and some cake.

Henry Jones and family have moved out to their farm, and Mr. Sauls has moved into the house that they occupied.

Miss Minnie Carrow visited Miss Bessie Wheeler during the holidays.

George Johnson has exchanged his launch for an automobile.

Phillip White, who lives with his father, Joseph White, on the river front, near the Congregational Church, is the champion fisherman with rod and line, and has been catching a great many lately.

Miss Bessie Wheeler entertained some of the teachers on Wednesday evening of last week. The teachers all left Sunday so as to be ready to assume work in their various schools on Monday.

Joseph White has had the street leading from the Congregational Church to the river shelled and put in fine shape. If there were more like Mr. White in our town, Port Orange would grow faster.

E. F. McDaniel received the engine for his new boat Monday.

Alfred Morford has his fine racing boat at the city dock.

Mr. Howard is here doing a lot of surveying.

MANY NAMES BEING ADDED.

The Subscription List of The Daily News Rapidly Growing.—Paper Growing in Popularity.

The Daily News subscription list list is forging ahead with rapid strides. New subscribers are being added by the dozen daily, and the paper is growing in popularity with all classes. No paper on the East Coast enjoys the patronage bestowed upon The Daily News, and, judging from the voluntary testimonials constantly arriving at this office, its advertisers are satisfied with their investment.

From now on, the list will grow much more rapidly than in the past, as people are coming in very fast.

If you want the best paper on the East Coast, subscribe for The Daily News, and if you want to reach the people who buy, advertise in its columns.

THIEVES ARE AGAIN BUSY.

Made an Attempt To Enter the Home of H. G. Hunnewell.—Services of a Detective Required.

A sneak thief made an attempt to enter the home of H. G. Hunnewell last night about 1 o'clock, but his ever watchful dog frightened the burglar away. The thief had raised a window in the rear portion of the house. Mr. Hunnewell arose, upon hearing the dog bark, but could find no trace of the intruder.

A Daily News representative, in his rounds every day, hears parties speaking of the conditions that have been existing for some time past, and it is a fact that the town is in need of a special detective to unravel the situation.

It is hoped that the City Council will do something to see that this pilfering comes to an end.

Col. C. M. Bingham received a telegram last night from Gen. J. C. R. Foster, asking him to go to Washington, and attend the National Guard Convention, which convenes in the capitol city, on the 22d inst. Colonel Bingham replied that it was impossible for him to attend.

The Daytona News says, Marshal Zuber of that city gave a negro $5 to effect the capture of some pilfering negroes. Then he found out, the paper says, that this negro, Ed. Leonard, was himself one of the gang. Of course, the negro is missing. The News says the Marshal thinks "some negro crooks are a hard class to deal with." The negro crooks probably think Marshal Zuber is "dead easy" to deal with.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

For several days past, subscriptions to The Daily News have been pouring into the office, and the lists of the carrier boys are now rapidly increasing. The Daily News as an advertising medium, is classed as the best, and if you want to reach the people of Daytona and the surrounding towns, be sure to place an ad. in its columns. If you have anything you want to buy, sell or rent, advertise in The Daily News.

A Hymn for Today

BETHLEHEM

By Phillips Brooks

PERHAPS admiration of the author's personality has not a little to do with the popularity of this hymn. It was written for the use of Trinity Sunday school, Boston, and sent out anonymously, but the people soon found it out. Though evidently intended as a Christmas hymn, it is used at other times and may be counted as one of the few new hymns that have taken their place along with the old ones. It is found in nearly all of the standard collections.

O, little town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by,
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting light.
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight.

For Christ is born of Mary,
And, gathered all above
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.
O, morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth,
And praises sing to God, the King,
And peace to men on earth!

How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear his coming,
But in this world of sin
Where meek souls will receive him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

O Holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin and enter in;
Be born in us today!
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell—
Oh, come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Immanuel!

A Poem for Today

THE VINE

By James Thompson

THE wine of Love is music,
And the feast of Love is song,
And when Love sits down to the banquet
Love sits long:

Sits long and arises drunken,
But not with the feast and the wine.
He reeleth with his own heart,
That great, rich vine.

A Poem for Today

SLEEP

By John Fletcher

COME, Sleep, and with thy sweet deceiving
Lock me in delight awhile;
Let some pleasing dreams beguile
All my fancies; that from thence
I may feel an influence
All my powers of care bereaving!

Though but a shadow, but a sliding,
Let me know some little joy!
We that suffer long annoy
Are contented with the thought
Through an idle fancy wrought:
Oh, let my joys have some abiding!

We are showing a great line of Caps,

DAYTONA AND ITS ATTRACTIONS.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its fairest expanse and midway between its source at Bulow Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29, seventy-four miles from St. Augustine and one mile from the Atlantic Ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high hammock land that was crowned by nature with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees is the town of to-day, with its beautiful cottages and well graded walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lordly live and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palmettos glossy-leaved magnolias, fragrant bays and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the ampelopsis climb and cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of Daytona's greatest attractions.

The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all 100 feet wide, except Beach street which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breezes from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well-graded, marled and shelled roads and streets, rendering it the

and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long-distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages

that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinements of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, Lily Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

Water Supply

which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This flow is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,800. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach

lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect in comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.

The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bared for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palm-fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the several bridges which cross the sinuous Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at ebbtide, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the grey haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula

lying between river and ocean is one half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, an opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature

of Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected for homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying.

Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona.

At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavalle, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon, individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river.

Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.

Low Tide on the Beach.

Add one pint of water, cover closely and let them simmer on back of stove until pie crust is made. Make soft dough of sour cream and soda, as for biscuit.
